

Arthur L. Pettway

December 24, 1925 - March 31, 2020

Arthur L. Pettway a father, father in-law, grandfather, great grandfather, great great-grand father, uncle and husband was born December 24, 1925 (you doing the math?) in Selma, Alabama. Yup, he was 94 years old.

He was a man of strong spiritual faith, a provider, an advisor, whether you wanted advising or not, friend and Builder, literally. He built his home in Holly, Michigan in 1977 with the help of his sons, family and friends which still stands strong today. Yes, our daddy built our home! And it wasn't a Tree House either. Like they say, go big or go home. In addition, he was a chef-yes, chef. Yeah, a really good cook. He could make a mean pot of greens with ox tails, fried fish, sweet potatoes, and we not gone even talk 'bout those BBQ pig feet (don't knock it til you try it). Now, talk about some good eat'n. I think you get the point.

His humor, smile and direct approach to life, which often meant telling it like it T-I-S, will sorely be missed.

In light of the worlds pandemic today, there will be a public viewing for family and friends on April 22. However, a man of such stature truly deserves a celebration fit for a King. Therefore, a Celebration of Life like no other will be planned at a later date.

If you wish to send flowers for his viewing on April 22, feel free to do so. Cards and other expressions of love can be sent to our home in Holly, MI.

Thank you for your continued prayers, support and expressions of love.

“ Sir. Arthur L. Pettway,

A humble man of greatness, a legend and a King. Glory be to God as all the angles sing.

His wisdom was unsearchable and sometimes beyond all knowledge. His heart was truly golden, what you might call Ag'ape (tough) love LOL. He always told it like it IS. A man of extraordinary vision and resolute purpose. He taught me so much about so many things.

He could out work ANYBODY and always did. Like an actual Super Hero. LOL

Now, as the heavenly host welcome you home and all the angles are singing. I give glory Almighty God and say be at peace and rest farther Arthur, the man, the King.

Grace peace and condolences to all the family.

Love,

“ I always looked at Arthur as the patriarch of our family. The last one that came from the union of the four brothers that married four sisters. I had a great deal of respect and love for him. Its so much I could say, I could go on and on. I ganged a lot from his character and I'm proud to count him as my cousin.

“ The Pettway family will always hold a special place in my heart. Mr. Pettway was always full of humor and always made me feel like his own child all the times I visited his home. He lead a household of faith and because of the life he lived, I'm sure he is reaping heaven's rewards. "Servant, well done." Praying for peace & protection for the Pettway Family.
