“ I'm so glad that I was able to watch the service (thank you for streaming), but it was also painful to not be able to be there and give my family a hug during our grief. I have nothing but great memories of my Great Aunt Mabel from childhood visits to Detroit. She was wicked smart and like the pastor said, always calm and measured, even in her moments of frustration. It's so hard to lose another one of the elder siblings but I am so glad that her pain and suffering is over. Cousin Mark, You are amazing and she knew that. I cannot wait until we can come together as a whole big family and honor her and celebrate her. Love, Jen (Cousin Jennifer) Johnson

“ What a beautiful service and tribute to the life of Aunt Mabel. I am crying tears of sadness but find comfort in knowing she is no longer in pain. I wish strength and grace to Mark and to all our family and friends who shared their love for Aunt Mabel in today's service.

With all my love, Karen Starks (daughter of Mary Miles Starks)

“ Mark,

I was sadden to hear of your mom's transition. My memories of your mom go back to when I was five years old. She has always been one of the sweetest caring individuals, I have come across in this life. Her love for you and her willingness to promote growth and progress had a major impact on my life. Please remember her legacy lives on in you.

“ Mark,
Deepest sorrow and sympathy. Ms. was a great friend, teacher and neighbor to me and my children. I'm going to miss her sharing watermelon and our conversation while she took walks. Bless her, you, your family and friends always

Sincerely,

“ Mabel and I worked together in the Detroit Public Schools Adult Education Outreach Department from 1989 - 1996. A change in assignments sent us in different directions within the department, but our friendship continued until she passed away. Mabel was serious about her work, but always had time for fun! She was a good friend who cared about others and freely shared her wisdom about life. Sending strength and love to Mark and her family. She will be missed.
