“ Thank you so much Kelley family for allowing me to share your dad, my neighbor for over 50 years. The word neighbor does not adequately describe the family relationship of our families. Mr. Kelley was a father figure, a protector, a friend, an encourager, a judge, a man of great love of GOD and man. In the 50 years I never heard him raise his voice or disrespect anyone. He was our neighborhood solid citizen we could always consult with about anything. Though he will no longer be with us physically, his spirit will live on on Oakman Boulevard. I will miss his warm greetings and joyful laughter. Rest In Peace Mr. Kelley and job well done! Respectfully,
Karen Cartwright

A great person. I grew up in Savanna La Mar in Jamaica. I have known Leary from I was 12 years old. He and his colleagues had a gym on the same street where I lived. They were are body builders. Their bodies were sculptured and glistened during their workouts. We will miss you my friend. Rest in peace! One Love.
