“ Ohhh my handsome, shinning and caring father. I am so happy youvshared your last days with us in Michigan. Sitting and thinking that we will never talk again breaks my heart. I feel empty not seeing nor hearing your voice. Papa, I miss you so dearly. I am happy because I know you are in heaven with God watching over us. Papa you will for ever be in our hearts forever. We love you so much 😊❤️❤️❤️

Pa Mofor, I had never met you but stories surrounding you including the only one time we spoke on phone proved you were a father to all with a good heart for humanity. I was patiently waiting to receive you in Louisiana but God had other plans to bring you to his blossom. Fare well pa and eternal rest to you. My condolences to your lovely family

Ni Abraham, my French ambassador. Always very chatty , funny and full of life. Easy to talk to. Never judged me and held me close. I am glad we had our funny chats a month b4 your transition and those memories I'll forever cherish. God takes the best. Grow ur wings and fly high. Remember to always protect me from up there how you did down here. My heart is shattered. Chaii papa, man for all man. Adieu papa Cherie

Pa Abraham as we always call you I knew you as my co-worker then a very good friend we shared our in laughter and sadness. When I left to the U.S. you were the one helping my daughter with my papers. You came to the U.S. and we talk every time but I could not imagine you going like this. Well when God's time is time no one can say no. Bro. watch over your children you have worked. May the Lord grant you a place in his kingdom. Sleep in peace my brother.

Oh papa, I can't believe you're gone, it feels like a dream to me. I remember how we used to crack jokes and laugh 😄, who am I going to share my silly jokes with? who's going to help me do my chores when am sick? Who's going to give me all my little little money like you, even when you didn't have papa, you gave to others. I still have a lot I want to tell you, you didn't even wait for me to spoil you as I've always told you 😞. why did you leave so soon? I have a lot of questions I want to still ask you papa 😞 😞 😞. But I know you're in a better place where you won't have to feel anymore pain papa, thank you so much for the love you showed me and everyone around you. You are the best gift God gave me and I shall not forget all what you taught me papa, I love you so much and I'm going to miss you so much too but I know you're always with me in my heart 😞 😞 😞 😞 😞 😞
