“ Rest well my brother! You encouraged me to return back to the states from Canada after graduation. I lived in your home in Southfield, it was reconnecting again after we left Nigeria, where we were teammates and classmates at the University. My experience in Southfield was great until I returned to Canada. We kept in touch not regularly, but every time we caught up, it was with love, laughter, family, and I know all you had to endure. When we spoke last spring, you had planned to visit me in Toronto and experience the Caribana festival until you said you couldn't make it. I was happy we caught up with developments in each other lives. "Kpongus" was what we called each other! I said I was going to bring my family to Detroit to meet you, we made all of these plans bro! 35 yrs of friendship! I remember you spot in you mother's home! When I was leaving Nigeria, I spoke to you about a mutual friend of ours, you had him live with you after my departure. Thank you my brother for your love and friendship. I am devastated since I heard about your passing yesterday! To your 3 boys, stay strong your daddy was a good man, a great friend, and a fantastic human being. To Nana and Solomon, it's terrible to have to lose a younger brother, we are stuck with " I wish, I wish! Kpongus, I will forever miss you, Thank you, my brother, and say hello to your mom. I am still in disbelief and can't believe this is real! I called the funeral home and they confirmed it.

Rest well, brother!
