“ I grew up with Derek & Bryant, Acquneese's brothers, back on Hogarth street in Detroit. Niecey was such a kind, gentle soul who always had something nice to say. Our deepest condolences to her family during this time of loss. God was in a very good mood the day she was born. I am sure He has welcomed her back home with loving arms, as only a Father like Him would. A distinct pleasure having known this wonderful person.

“ Acquneese was such a kind and sweet person. I'm glad we met, I was her territory secretary at one time, and I'm so happy our paths crossed. My heart is stung but I turn to God and remember her being a kindred spirit!
