

Ahmad Rahmere Terrell

January 11, 1993 - November 9, 2019

Ahmad Rahmere Terrell, son of David and Ralanda Terrell, was born on January 11, 1993 in Southfield, Michigan. Ahmad was a happy and friendly baby, which led him to becoming an outgoing adult. He received his education within the Southfield Public School system. It was during his time at Southfield High School that he began to develop his outgoing spirit and he evolved from a talkative child who was sometimes mischievous into a young man who realized how to use his voice for good. He found his gift in communications. He thrived while working in production and on-air at WSHJ 88.3FM, the high school station, until he graduated in 2011. Soon after, his love for communications began to take a more serious form in music.

In 2011, Ahmad, his younger brother Malik, and his close cousin Justin Bunkley united their musical talents and formed an entertainment group called DopeDiv, an acronym for Defeating Other People's Expectations Division, where Ahmad was affectionately known as Huey Fresmen. During this time, Ahmad also completed a broadcast certification from Specs Howard School of Broadcast in 2015.

Ahmad loved and cherished life and had a personality large enough to fill the four corners of any room. Ahmad's hero in life was his father; Ahmad wanted to be just like his dad. In addition to his appreciation of music, he shared with his father and brother a love for automobiles. Ahmad loved his father's classic burgundy Lincoln, which is the inspiration for the color used for his physical eternity. He also loved his Mustang and was known to keep it in stellar condition. Additionally, Ahmad liked fashion. From his fitted hat and tennis shoe collection to his love for vintage clothes, Ahmad had a style all of his own and was the self-proclaimed, “freshest big guy since Biggie died.”

More than music, automobiles, and fashion, and above all, Ahmad loved his family. He looked after his family, especially his parents, grandparents, and siblings. Two of Ahmad’s proudest final moments were with the release of DopeDiv’s album titled, Coney Run and in learning that he was an uncle-to-be. Ahmad loved kids and eagerly anticipated the birth of his niece or nephew next year.

His beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of his parents: David and Ralanda Terrell of Southfield, MI; grandmothers: Norieta Clincy (the late Benny Clincy) and Delores Jean Terrell (the late Harry Terrell, Sr.) of Pontiac, MI; siblings: Sheena Meadows (Cardell) of Pine Bluff, AR and Malik Terrell of Southfield, MI; uncles: Delmon Terrell (Denise Nichols) of Northville, MI, Harry Terrell, Jr. (Tachikie Smith) of Southfield, MI, Marvin Clincy of Detroit, MI, and Mario Clincy of Detroit, MI; aunt: Leslie Houston of Canton, MI; two godsisters, Destiny Kellam of Inkster, MI and Semaj Lackey-Harris of Houston, TX; his girlfriend Sierra Rickman of Southfield, MI along with his special friend, her son Austin; and a host of dear cousins, extended relatives, classmates, and friends.

“ Ahmad, even though we only knew each other for a short amount of time, we had a ball at work, always cracking jokes and just acting silly. I will never forget how you used to ask me and Mo to get you some Polo socks for Christmas and we were like HELL naw, lol. I wish we could go back to those days. I was hurt when you left the company, I really missed you. But I always knew that I could reach out to you on social media any time I wanted to hear from you. But now that you're gone I can't. This is still unreal to me and it hasn't set in yet. But I miss you, rest peacefully Iron Man, lol!!!!

“ I love you. I miss you. Your presence on earth has made by far the biggest impact on my life. The things you have taught me about hiphop culture that I never would've thought to question to just your general perspective on life, I will forever hold dearly. I appreciate you for the movie dates, always taking me to some new place to eat downtown, late night phone calls, being my shoulder to lean on, to putting me on to a Tribe Called Quest. We shared alot of memories over the years and I will never forget them. I will hold your presence in my heart. Rest peacefully, Papa aka the FRESHEST big Na since Biggie died. Tells Biggs we said Whatup!

To his family: I send you all my love, hugs and prayers during this time for your healing.

“ If there’s people you wish you had a better relationship with, make an effort to cultivate that. If someone creates something that moves or connects with you and you have the opportunity to do so, share those feelings with them. Give people flowers while they’re still here.

Watching Ahmad go from drumming pencils on textbooks at Adler Elementary School to being 1/3 of one of Detroit’s greatest hip-hop groups of all-time was one of the most beautifully dope, inspiring, and surreal things I’ve ever seen. Despite blowing up on the music scene, he always treated me like a regular human being instead of some random fan or irrelevant elementary school classmate. I felt the love in every dap he gave and every catch up conversation we had over the years. I appreciate his humbleness and the moments we shared more than I ever expressed. I’m proud of him for who he was and the art he created. I feel fortunate that our lives crossed paths.

In him, the world lost an artist, brother, son, cousin, friend, one hell of a performer, a true hip-hop connoisseur, and a good, respected and respectable, man. A man who’ll never be forgotten.

“Freshest big nigga since Biggie died“ FOREVER, my dawg! 🙏

“ Just thinking about how I met you at Camp evergreen. You always talked about music and who was the best rappers in the game and of all time. You put me onto Kendrick Lamar and still till this day I am a fan. Ahmad you impacted my life and I will always remember you, you’re presence and you’re personality. I love you man and appreciate the support and love you always gave. Rest In Peace Ahmad!

The gems he gave me, the energy he sent me when i needed it, the hugs...so genuine. I'm gonna miss you man. I'm gonna miss all our music talks, I'm gonna miss your jokes, imma miss seeing your smile, imma miss you calling me everything but my actual name. Thank you for watching me when i never knew you was paying attention. Thank you for seeing me Ahmad 🌹

“ Man where do I start bro.. I could go on and on about how you and Malik looked out for me when I first moved to the west side and didn't know a damn soul lol. Kicking it up in the hallways before 1st hour everyday.. you embraced me like I was your little brother too. You put me on my first show in the city and it was because you believed in me. It feels weird speaking on you in the past-tense but I know you're gonna watch over all of us until we meet again. Ima miss you man, but imma always hold it down and stay crispy just like you'd expect. Save a spot for me bro ❤️
