“ Brother Wells after reading of Your loss of your brother, I send my sincere condolences to you and your family.

Having buried my daughter on Dec. . 29, 2017, I am well aware of the many bereavement moments that come and go upon the passing of a loved one. While being in Christ brings comfort, our human emotions unavoidably creep into our minds. Even so, we realize our earthly mortality is part of our Holy Father's masterful plan, so there's peace in the expectations of seeing our loved ones again.

It is in that knowledge, I, with the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ our savior, pray for you and your family in this time of loss. May the faith in your hearts ease the bereavement in your mind. This I pray with heartfelt "empathy" and sympathy, may God ease your family's bereavement and keep you in His grip!
