“ You and I were born just 2 months apart, the daughters of sisters. What fun we had growing up together, you, your sisters, my sister and I. By the time your family moved to Detroit, we had all formed an everlasting bond. Your transition leaves me with many melancholy memories that I will treasure always. Thanks for passing through my life.

*Love,
Earline*

“ Alice Ruth,
I remember all the great times we had at the Family Reunions. I'll never forget your laughter. What a joy! Thanks for the memories.
Love,
Aunt Edna

“ I will always remember our childhood years, as we grew up in Alabama surrounded by our loving family. Passing through death is really a birth into a better world. Our dear ones live on, in a world beautiful beyond anything we can imagine.
Love,
Cousin Anita.
