“ First off.... I will truly miss Cousin Jackie (according to the family tree Jackie was my 1st cousin 2 times removed). Jackie was a Giant in our Jackson family, he spent years doing research on our family tree and coordinating efforts in the past for Jackson reunions and also managed a Jackson family cruise as well. He always started the conversation with “how you doing, are you alright?” He always had a calm demeanor (as long as you didn’t talk crazy or start any sh) I met Cousin Jackie back in the mid 2000s he was very instrumental in me taking the family research he and others assembled and I moved it over to the PC.

To his adult children Robert and Miriam I truly loved your father and hopefully we can start communicating more. Your father’s legacy will never be forgotten by me and others who loved him.

“ From the Reaves Family - Dolores, Cynthia, Kenneth, Sr., Jacqueline, Kennedy and Kenneth, Jr., please know that you are in our hearts and prayers. Dolores shared a very special bond with Jackie that lasted an entire lifetime. She remembers with fondness the fun they had growing up and Jackie's wit and humor. We are all in deep grief and pray for your family to have strength during this time.

“ I have a of memories that I can share.

The first was about 40 years ago. I was in my mod-twenties and Mr. J. (as I always called him) was in his early 50's. His family often invited me to their 4th of July cookouts. This one was at the home of one of Roberts cousins and her (then) husband.

It was suggested that we go play some basketball at one of their neighbors. We got up to go and I noticed that Mr. J. - who also SMOKED at the time, was getting up too!

I asked him where he was going? He said "Y'all ain't the only ones that can ball!"

We all laughed. I thought for sure that this was just a heart attack in the making. Man was I wrong. When the games got underway he was "bodying people, backing us down, checking up, and generally just making a good showing for himself. It was something to see, and I doubt that I will ever forget it.

There are others, but I will share just that one. Gonna miss you Mr. J.
