“ Andrea was my very bestfriend throughout middle school and high school, I'm devastated learning of her passing. We had a lot of fun during the times we shared together, from hanging out at Fairlane Mall to Pistons games. She will be truly missed. Your friend always, Liz

“ I met Andrea through her mother, Dorothy, who was my administrative assistant several years ago. Andrea was a proud and caring mother who wanted the best for her children. She wanted me to tutor them in reading which I gladly did. She even invited me to a school parent conference to meet with the reading specialist. Very passionate about her children's progress and well-being, Andrea was consistent and determined to give them the best. Her smile, seriousness, but gentle demeanor will always be remembered and honored. Rest in peace, Andrea. Rest in peace. Love-Dr. Shelley McIntosh
