“ Andy was a Great Boss . He always had a good attitude and smile to go along with it. He was very easy to approach with any problems that come up in the workplace and always down to earth when having a conversation with us workers. He was one of the Bosses that made us feel like a family.

I always considered the people at The Ford World Head Quarters Garage my Work Family and Andy was one of those good people.
With good memories
May Andy Rest in Peace. My deepest Sympathy to his Family,
Cindy Rogers

“ During the brown out black out of the early 2000s Andy brought us breakfast that Saturday morning. He prepared it on his gas grill. It was the first time I realized you can cook breakfast on a grill!! He was A1 from Day 1. Miss you Mr Alexander. My grandpa was likely one of the first faces you saw when you got to Heaven.
