“ Well, you know how we all tend to gravitate to the same spot in church every Sunday? I was privileged to find myself in the pew behind Annie on Sundays. I was also lucky to be able to provide transportation to and from church when Gloria was out of town. What a pleasure those rides were on Sunday. Annie was a wealth of history, humor and optimism. I will remember them always and to this day miss seeing her in church on Sundays.

“ I will forever miss that soft, sweet voice of my dear, dear Aunt. When, after I lost my mother, gave me advice prayerful & otherwise-just like a second mother to me. To live long & endure God was & is truly by her side. Be at peace, love you my sweet!!

“ I was absolutely heartbroken when I received the call that you had passed on. I immediately started thinking about our many conversations, full of love and laughter. Your beautiful spirit will remain in me.. Although you have become a memory, your memory is a treasure to me. I love you, Ms. Annie
