“ Kenneth, Kenneth II and Katrina Johnson would like offer our most sincere condolences in the loss of your brother, our cousin who was a very charming, yet a tough young man. We remember the way he toughened up his little cousin, Kenneth, II who was 9 years his junior when his mom the late Gloria Jean Richardson would babysit for us. Even though the family was scattered and everyone was dealing with their own lives, Anthony was the one who kept in touch always. We will miss him and may his memory be a blessing to us all.
