“ To my wonderful friend/sister, I will truly miss our long funny and unfiltered conversations especially being at work. Just a year ago when I met you in the Flats at the West Valley Post Office (Arizona), I knew we were going to be good friends. You always had an outgoing personality and no doubt that the West Valley location will never be the same without you Antionette. I wish I could have spent more time with you while you were here and in the hospital, but the days that I did see you, I will forever cherish. I miss you homegirl and I will always love you. From yours truly: Gloria Meredith (West Valley Friend/Sister)

“ Me and Nette worked at the Post Office together. The Brightmoor Station (48223) in Detroit. Nette took me under her wings and we became really close friends. I thought of her as my big sister. She was so very sweet and always had a smile on her face. This has broken my heart. She is going to be missed dearly. See you later friend 💕💕

“ We will miss our sister dearly, Our Mom Penny, knew what she was doing when she gave us the gift of togetherness, I can truly say that we are one united family and this hurts tremendously, I promised Antoinette that I will be there when she wakes up and my goal is to keep that promise.
