

Mr. Art Campbell

November 18, 1939 - April 14, 2020

Art Campbell was born November 18, 1939 in Detroit Michigan to the Late Leo Campbell and Nathalia Fletcher Campbell. He was the eldest of two sons, Bruce (brother), growing up on Detroit' "East Side". He attended the Detroit Public School System starting at Smith Elementary, then he received The American Legion Certificate of Honorable Mention upon completing the prescribed work of the Barbour Intermediate School and successfully graduated from Eastern High School. Art was always excited to share his Boy Scout experience. As a youth, he was a member of troop 428 at Peoples Community Church. He continued with Scouting until he achieved the Eagle Scout Rank! While at Eastern High School he flourished in the ROTC Program holding the highest cadet rank Sergeant First Class. After High School Art volunteered to enlist in the United States Army. Art was Honorably Discharged from the US Army, June 1st, 1965. Art was a Life -Long Learner receiving many certificates of achievements. Post military service, Art satisfactorily completed the Automation Institute of America's Computer Programming Coarse which led to a lucrative career of over 34 years, ending in retirement from The US Treasury Department, IRS office, Detroit Computing Center in 1995 receiving the prestigious Albert Gallatin Award. Of note, Art was most proud of completing the two-year curriculum of The Labor School (Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations U of M / WSU) in May 1974 then receiving a Bachelor of Philosophy degree June 1978 from Wayne State University. He Loved the Labor School and recommended / recruited many who also completed the two-year curriculum. Art Loved Amazing Adventures and understood that He was truly Blessed.
