“ Audrey,

I won't ever forget my first trip to Florida was with you on a Greyhound bus to visit your brother, Willie Gee. I was in the 9th grade and we had a blast. We stayed in Florida for two weeks and I learned so much about you. We had kindred spirits and had so much in common.

We also had a wonderful time sharing moments in 2007 at the Lewis Family Reunion that was held in Charleston, South Carolina. We sat together and laughed and talked about our experiences with men.

My last time seeing you in person was when you came to my brother, Donnie's funeral on June 19, 2016. You made me laugh when I sat with you at the repast. My sadness was forgotten for a brief moment.

Audrey, you had such a sweet spirit. Your smile would light up any room. I can't remember a time ever seeing you mad or upset. You always had a way of showing, sharing, and giving love and kindness towards others. That's why I admired you so much.

You will be sorely missed by family and friends. You are with God now and there is no more pain. Rest in peace my dear cousin. I won't forget you. I love you!❤️
