“ *It's so very difficult for me but the LORD is King overall.
So brief a relationship yet deep and impacting.
I pray that the Most High would grant you peace and rest.
Fair thee well dear sister & wife.*

With a heavy hearty I cannot put words to express how I feel. There are no goodbyes for us. You will always be in my heart. Goodbyes hurt when the story is not finished and the book has been closed forever. Your life inspires me.

Unable are the loved to die, for love is immortality. Sweet Sis. PrincessTina, you're my prayer partner in times of challenges, and I know now I have a beautiful angel praying for us. You're my source of rebound, I don't know how to resume everyday life after you. I'll remember your bright smile and kind soul. You are indeed a gift from the heavens, more than just a sister, I miss you sis, but I know you are in a better place. You lived a wholesome life despite the challenges and troubles. Your Strong Faith and resilience sort you through and has left a great space in our hearts that no other can fill. Remember, "Even in the fire to live is Christ, to die in Him is also gain". God has the best answer. He surely know what is best for us His children. Till we meet again to part no more, like you always say "It's well sis". Love you to the MOON.

“ In Loving Memory of a Special Sister-inlaw

My dear Sister, your life was a Blessing, Your memory a Treasure, You are loved beyond words and Missed beyond measure.

I'm sending a dove to heaven with a parcel full of beautiful things. Inside it are a million kisses, wrapped in a million hugs, to say how much we all miss you and send you all of my Love.

It truly saddens my heart because you are no longer here with us but I know we have gained another angel watching over us...

Rest well sister until we meet again

Your sister in-law

“ Ife. to man, it is saddened to be talking about you in an event of death at your age. But Paul said (Phil.1:21), to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

You strife to conquer sickness and pain that revolve around man life in this pervasive world. But Jesus through your living faith conquered Hell for you.

Your death left the entire family and loved ones in sober and in bitterness, because of who you are. However, I have no doubt in my heart, that God preferred your eternal joy, than our sorrow that he can take care of in a distant time.

May we see you to part no more in the right hand of God.

“ To my most beloved aunt,
not a day goes by that I do not think of you.
I am so deeply saddened by your passing.
I cherish all the memories we had and all the time we spent together even in the small amount of years I was with you. My only regrets are that I wasn't able to spend more time with you and that I wasn't there for you at you like you had always been there for me. I will never forget all the lessons you've taught me. May god lead your soul to heaven where you may finally rest.
With much love from your nephew,
Marvelous.

“ In our childhood days, where dreams were woven with threads of innocence and laughter, I found not just a sister but a confidant, a guardian, and a best friend. Today, as I pay tribute to my beloved sister, my heart oscillates between mourning the loss and celebrating the life that was so vibrantly lived.

From our early days as kids to adulthood, living and having conversations that stretched into the morning hours, my sister was a beacon of light and joy. Her beautiful spirit, filled with kindness and grace, touched lives in a way words can hardly describe. She embraced life with open arms, displaying a curiosity that was infectious.

As we grew older, our bond strengthened, transcending the barriers of siblinghood and transitioning into a friendship that was pure and unconditional. Her journey was not without its trials and tribulations. Yet, she faced them with a smile that hid the storms raging inside her. Her resilience was nothing short of inspiring, teaching us that life's beauty lies in its unpredictability, in its ability to surprise us even in the most trying times.

She embraced her roles as a daughter, a sister, and later, a loving wife and a mother, with a grace that was unparalleled. Her love knew no bounds. In her final days, she showed a courage that left us in awe. Her spirit, undeterred by the cruelty of disease, reminding us to live a life filled with love and laughter, to embrace each moment with an open heart and a joyous spirit. I realize that her physical presence may have left us, but her spirit, vibrant and alive, resides in each one of us, urging us to live a life worthy of the love and memories.

Today, as we bid farewell to a life beautifully lived, I pray God in his infinite mercies, grant her eternal peace. Goodbye, my dearest sister, until we meet again.

“ God looked around his garden.
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth.
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you.
And lifted you to rest.
God’s garden must be beautiful.
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough.
And the hills were hard to climb.
So, he closed your weary eyelids.
And whispered, ‘Peace Bethine’.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
But you didn’t go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

“ My love, my Queen, Achalaugo Prince, you've left a void in my life that can never be filled. but I will always cherish every memory and moment that we shared together, because you will always live in my heart even in death. It is true that you're gone, though it seems to me like a dream still, but I feel better cos, you left at peace with heaven. The world looks empty and shattered to me without you, but the love we had will always live with me. I love you Asaprinice, I love you Gwogwom. My heart breaks, my hopes gone, my desires fades, my goals twisted, and my happiness overturned. but I'm glad you're at peace now. Life will never be the same again without you my beautiful wife but, I will pray to God for the strength to carry on. A rare gem and epitome of beauty. You visited me two days to your departure and said, 'Sugar Dim, 'you want to go and rest", though it's so heavy, but I would say Rest on, Rest well, Rest in perfect peace Lolom till we meet again in glory. I LOVE YOU, MY WIFE.
