“ To my beloved step-son Austin Bell. You gave me the opportunity 12 years ago began a strong relationship with each other. For,that I thank you. You shared with me how you wish I was your real father and that I was the best father figure you had. That I will honor and cherish for the rest of my life. You was a smart, happy, loving,peaceful, outgoing, dependable and a hard working young man. I will truly miss your presence because you will always have a special place in my heart. Yes, I will continue to watch over your mother and sister. I have your phone message you left me on Father's day. Love you "Aus". From Tony Williams
