“ I knew Barbara Barford-McKinney, when we were children into adulthood. She was always a very personable individual. Always smiling, funny. She will be missed.

Barbara & I were church members. We served together each year on the Heritage Dinner representing our state. We were also avid readers & often exchanged books or discussed books we read. Her sweet, caring, loving spirit will be treasured. Family, she loved you. Continue her legacy of love as Christ loves us.
