“ To my friend Deann and the entire Wilbourn family, you are in my prayers. I can still remember Ms. Bernadette's turnip greens that Thanksgiving and how much my family enjoyed them. She even tried to talk me through the recipe but they didn't taste the same and my dad commented that I needed to call Dee's mom again. She will truly be missed.

Loving you all dearly and praying for you. The Baker's

“ To the Wilbourn and Mills Families, I send my deepest condolences. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. Our friendship started when I was just a child and I am now 62. I will always love her. Rest with God Bernadette .❤️ Anita Fields and Family.
