“ Bernard, my father in love, I'm thankful I had the opportunity to meet you. I'm thankful I had the opportunity to break bread with you and talk about life. Talk about the joys of your younger self and the joys of your daughter, my wife. I will miss your smile, your random texts and our private conversations. You are a great man. I promise to keep your spirit alive and to keep your daughter and granddaughter close to me. I love you and miss you!

“ Daddy, I miss you so much - your curiosity and thirst for the truth, your sense of humor, your advice who I've shared with some of you that has helped you, your willingness to show real emotion, your sense of style, your love for me, Courtney and Troy, your big heart, your love of Africa, how fun you were, and more.

Daddy, you loved Jesus, and I know you're happy to be back with him and your family. I love you always! Thank you for everything you did for us! Forever your little girl, Tiffany

“ It was always a pleasure to be in Uncle Bernard's presence. Even though I'm his niece by marriage, he treated me like his very own child. You could always count on him telling you the truth about a matter, all the while having you laughing at the same time. You will be greatly missed Uncle Bernard but I'm so Thankful you knew Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior so I have the promise of seeing you again. Praying for God's Great Comfort for the entire family. Love you Aunt Pat (hugs)

“ Bernard! I have so many awesome memories from back in the day with Bernard and Pat. Bernard was a natural comedien. He made me laugh until I cried. Bernard is resting in the arms of his Heavenly Father and is living it up with family and friends that preceeded him. No more pain and suffering. PRAISE GOD! To my sister Pat, you are an awesome woman of God! You stood on the covenant of marriage and the vows that you took before God. "To have and hold, in sickness and health, until death do us part." Bernard was blessed to have you as his wife and caregiver. The days ahead will be difficult to say the least. Hold on to your precious memories. When you think of your husband, look up to the sky and smile becuase you have an angel looking out for you! Tiffany and Troy the same for the both of you. Your dad was a great guy! I will be praying for the peace of God that surpasses all understanding to guard your heart and comfort you all! Love, Renee'.

*“ Uncle Bernard was a loving, happy, joyful, caring husband, father and grandfather. He is truly going to be missed. Comfort comes in knowing death is not the end.
Those who die in Christ will live eternally. Uncle Bernard is absent from the body and present with the Lord. Amen
I pray that the Lord will continue to comfort his wife Aunt Pat and his children and grandchildren with the peace of God that surpasses all understanding. 🙏
