“ Dear Kingsley Family,
My name is Steven Vinson, and I am the son of Debra Vinson, your sister. I am writing to express my deepest regret for missing the funeral of my grandfather, Bernard Kingsley. I was unaware of his passing until recently and am deeply saddened by this news. I have fond memories of my grandfather, though they are few. I remember a visit in the mid-1980s when he came to Grand Rapids to take me to see his father in a nursing home. My great-grandfather was overjoyed to see us and kept exclaiming "GREAT GOOGALI GOO GOO!" – a moment of pure joy and laughter that I will always cherish. I deeply regret not having a closer relationship with my grandfather. Our last conversation was in 2002 while I was stationed at Travis AFB in California, and I have always regretted losing touch with him. I am truly sorry for my absence and any pain it may have caused. I will forever remember my grandfather, Bernard Kingsley and hold him in my heart.
With sincere sympathy,
Steven Vinson

I now live in Malawi Africa. Somebody please reach out to me +265 88 567 3993
