“ I remember crying to always go with you as a child. I wish I had more pictures with you, but I will forever cherish the memories we shared. The side conversations we had together laughing. I love you Auntie always tell grandma I say hi. Continue to watch over us.

“ My condolences to my Eddington family my memory of our beloved Bernice “You showed up the day before my tea Party said Ma sent you to help me and I was so happy to see you I had so much to do and very little help, you were heaven sent we laughed and talked about the family what a joyous time we had and you showed up that next day looking so pretty I’m going to miss you.for me to quote a scripture I would use Thessalonians 4 :13-18.
