“ Bishop Eubanks deeply it saddens my heart that you and my First Lady Eubanks are no longer with us. You guys will forever be my pastor and first lady. I will miss you guys deeply. Although you guys may not be with us physically you are with us in our memories and in spirit and in the gospel you preached. I love you guys from the bottom of my heart. Love Sis. Japera Ray

“ BISHOP DAVID M. EUBANKS, YOU WILL BE TRULY MISSED & THE FIRST LADY ALSO. I'VE LEARNED ALOT FROM YOU. I HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF YOUR SERMONS. MAY THE FAMILY CONTINUE TO SHINE YOUR LIGHT, AND STAY STRONG.

“ I'm so so sorry I can't attend the Bishop's 'Going Home Service'. I'm stuck here in Tennessee. I have many fond memory's of Bishop's sermons, the Church dinners, the bowling & Cedar Point outings. When we moved to Tennessee in 1991, we made it a point to 'go home' for Sunday Service whenever we were in town. I'm going to deeply miss the Bishop & the 1st Lady.

Note - Betty, Johnny & Vangy will be there to represent our Family.

Tearfully yours Brother Ray
