“ My deepest condolences go out to your family. You had such a wonderful spirit as a child. I hadn’t seen you since you were a teenager. But I’m so happy you were able to meet more of your family. May your family remember all the precious memories they’ve shared with you throughout the years. And find peace with each passing day.

“ Sending prayers and condolences to Bree's 4 children. I remember knowing meeting her at New Light Baptist church close to 30 years ago as a teenager. Those days seem like yesterday. It's great seeing the woman she became many years later: a strong Christian woman and a great mother. I'm thankful for being able to keep in contact over the years. She will be greatly missed.

To my beautiful cousin inside and out i was blessed to have the opportunity to know you from childhood to the woman whom you became. I pray that your four beautiful children continue to carry on your legacy of giving and love just as you did. Rest in peace cousin I love you forever to eternal. Love your cousin Diana...💔

“ Bree, you were one of the sweetest young ladies on the Usher Board of New Light Baptist Church. I remember your kind, quiet, gentle spirit.

May The Lord Jesus Christ heal the broken hearts of your family and loved ones.

“ My heart, love and prayers to my Aunt and my cousins. Bree will be missed and forever loved. She raised four beautiful children, sent words of encouragement when feeling the need and had a heart to give to the less fortunate. My heart hurts but I know God is the source of all comfort. Love you family. Your niece and cousin Dawn. S.
