“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Brenda Ivery-Hall. It has been a while since I've seen Brenda but the last time I saw her was at church. I can still remember her beautiful smile and her warm hugs. She was a beautiful person externally but even more so internally. She will be sorely missed. I am so happy that she became a part of my world. May God bless each of you and may God's light is continually reflected in your life daily. With Love. Joyce at Allen Temple C M E.

“ To the family of Brenda Ivery Hall, my deepest condolences to you. Brenda was such a warm, loving and friendly person. I had the chance to work with her at Golightly Career and Technical School. On my first day of work she made me feel at ease and made me feel welcome. I have never heard anything but nice things about Brenda. She is loved by staff and students alike. We will miss her.
