“ To Cal's family,

*I just found out that Cal is gone and please accept my condolences. Cal put me on his basketball team, The Harlem Hobos in Cleveland, Ohio. I am old now but that was one of the great highlights of my life. That Howard guy (JD) can tell you about the three of us. lol.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to Jana and the Dilworth Family.

Cal was a ray of sunshine in so many peoples' lives. He may no longer be with us but all the good deeds and great times we shared with him will always be remembered.

A bright light gone on earth shines brightly in the heavens above.

“ Our memories of Cal always bring a smile. His robust laughter and smile would lift up anyone's spirit. His charming personality could influence an individual or a whole room.

No one was a stranger to Cal for he considered everyone he met to be a friend.

God bless Cal's family members and he will be surely be missed by all of us.

“ My condolences to the Dilworth family.

I first met Coach Cal in 1978, when I signed with Wayne State University. Coach Dilworth was the men's basketball team's assistant coach at that time.

Coach D. was an exceptional and wise mentor.

Over the next 40 years as our path periodically crossed, Coach D. would continue to mentor and share his wisdom to provide great advice to me.

It's not so often that we met people in life who's primary focus is to make others better.

Coach D. was one of those people.

He truly will be missed.

“ That million dollar smile I will never forget "Dad" as I called you. I was so looking forward to seeing you as I was planning on leaving Las Vegas on December the 8th. I can't question God's timing, but, I'm so numb in regards to losing you. So sorry I never got to say goodbye "Dad". Thank you for accepting me and Myesha as a part of your family. I will cherish all time fun times we shared together. Condolences are with you both Jana and Alsetta and also to the immediate family. Love you "Dad" and I will miss you dearly along with keeping you laughing. Rest on Sir....Love Sassy and Myesha

“ I recall as a child growing up when he would come to visit his family, the beautiful smile he had as he said hello. RIP Mr. Calvin.
