“ Dear Karlayne,

We are so sorry to learn of your Mother's passing. It will be a difficult transition for you. Your memories will help you to cope with your loss.

Our thoughts are with you and Orlando.

“ I can't help but smile each time I think of Mother Carole. Her genuineness and contagious smile captured me from the beginning. I didn't realize all the remarkable things she had accomplished until I heard others mention them from time to time. As the list continued to grow, I wondered if ALL the things that I was hearing was true! How could this beautiful, classy, highly educated, multi-talented, woman who has traveled extensively in and out of the country be genuinely down-to-earth as I had thought her to be. Surely the pride would soon come through-- NEVER! What did come through was her love for the Lord and His people.

Mother Carole was a REMARKABLE woman. I enjoyed EVERY moment I spent with her.

Thank you, Karlayne, for sharing your mom with me. I loved her, and I love you and Orlando. I will ALWAYS remember Mother Carole as one of the most beautiful women I've ever had the pleasure and the joy of spending time with. It's still hard to comprehend all that she accomplished, yet she devoted herself to the work of the Lord wholeheartedly.

God bless and keep you and your loved ones.

“ Unfortunately, Jim and I will be unable to attend the memorial and funeral services for Carole. Sadly, on the same day that Carole died the young daughter of a friend was killed in a car crash and we will be attending those services on the other side of town. One glimmer of peace comes with the thought that these two women will be entering Paradise together. I am sure that Carole would take this young lady under her wing and accompany her on this final journey - because that is who Carole was. In our years working together at the Detroit Public Library we experienced the loss of family members and Carole - and her warm and wonderful church - always held us up in prayer and you always knew that God paid special attention to those prayers.

I was so fortunate to share a small cubby hole of an office at the Library with Carole. Often, close quarters can bring problems but it was a joy to be with Carole. She was bright, kind, funny, elegant, refined and faith-filled. She had been a loving caretaker for her mother and anticipated the same fate for herself. She accepted that eventuality with remarkable equanimity, an indication of how deep her faith went. Whatever God had in store for her she would willingly accept and now He has welcomed her home.

Our condolences to Karlayne and Orlando. Please know that we will be with you in spirit in the days to come.

“ Karlayne & Orlando,

In times of sorrow, when words of comfort are needed most, it seems they are most difficult to say...but may you find comfort in knowing that warm thoughts and sympathy are with you.

To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. (2Cor. 5:8)

“ Sincere sympathy to the family of Ms. Carole. We have missed her in Sunday morning worship services. She always had a delightful smile and a kind word. She's with her Lord and Savior, now happy and healthy, and we can take comfort in that knowledge. May the Lord give you peace and strength during this time of sorrow.
