“ Dear Family of Carter Stevenson ~~ it was with sadness i read of Carter Stevenson's passing, but i know that Mr. Stevenson is anywhere that good, kind and gentle folks are. He made the most wonderful Full-of-Life Santa Claus at our church's Christmas party one year for children who had an incarcerated family member. He had everyone laughing with his joyful, sharing spirit. Blessings on his head and LOVE for all the family members. With Love ~~ elayne sikelianos, member, 1st Unitarian Universalist Church of Detroit.

“ The Mejjishi Martial Arts community sends our deepest sympathy to the family of Carter Stevenson. For several years, Carter participated in our community, bringing his grandchildren, Mikalia and Michael to Karate classes. He supported them with wisdom and care, observing and encouraging both children. He was more than a wonderful grandfather. He was a respected community member. Parents and instructors looked forward to talking with Carter, whether about Trevor Noah's autobiography, Albert Camus' Myth of Sisyphus or his thoughts about civil rights and current events. One year, he volunteered to read an impactful quote by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. at our yearly celebration. He was always willing to help especially at holiday parties. We enjoyed his patience, steadiness and strength. Carter had a heart of gold and we miss him. During this time, we especially reach out to Barbara, Carter's wife and Marge Harris, Carter's sister, who are so bravely carrying on the responsibilities of raising Mikaila and Michael without him. We pray that the family will find comfort and strength in knowing what a blessing Carter was to our Mejjishi community and to a world that needs caring elders in our midst.
