“ I'm sure like everyone else, this was my man, words can't describe the impact Chuck made on my life. Our MSUBA organization has made such a difference in the world. He used to always say "Handling business is about relationships". The relationships I've made, the growth I've experienced, started with my networking and fellowship. Chuck helped give me that.

“ A first met Chuck at the Downtown Detroit YMCA. We later joined Fitness Works. Chuck is much loved as a true brother who spoke his mind with conviction. He was a true Detroit brother and a loyal Spartan. I was always happy to see Chuck and I will miss him.

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Chuck Smith. He worked with my dad at City of Detroit and informed him of the MSuBA scholarship program. That’s how I first found out about MSUBA and received scholarships. He was always a friendly face at MSUBA events. 🥺

“ Brother Chuck..... So much can be said of you. What I remember of so many memories, over the years, is your unassuming yet powerful PRESENCE! It was such a contrast to how you chaired those MSU Black alumni meetings I’m smiling as I write this. We have lost a great brother of Kappa Alpha Psi, Fraternity, Inc. and advocate for young black students at Michigan State University.

Sincere condolences to your a
Son and the family.

I have known Chuckie since our undergrad days at MSU. His kindness, humor, and wit made it a joy to be with him. When my line pledged Alpha Kappa Alpha in 1972, he opened his home to us and did whatever he could to help us to achieve our goal. He became our Sweetheart. Through the years whenever we saw each other, it was as if we'd seen each other the day before. He was passionate about his alumni work and so many have benefited from his endeavors. May our memories comfort us and bring us peace as God grants Chuckie rest.
