“ Uncle Sonny you were the Man!! How do we move on from this? The trips to the Knox will never be the same and them family reunions you kept after us about will never be the same!! Every time we saw you we knew it was going to be fun ...fun and more fun!! Mom always said Uncle Sonny is coming to the family events and we all tried that much harder to attend so we could see you and get them big hugs that only you had for each and every one of us!!! I remember my last visit to Detroit a few years ago and you picked me up and we rode around all your old stomping grounds reminiscing about your hay days in Detroit socialite scene, Golf Clubs you belonged to and yes you were singing all that old skool music in your new Lincoln SUV!!! I can't get time back and will never forget this and a lifetime of memories with you Uncle!! Rest In Peace Uncle Sonny!!

“ I was a colleague of Chuck at Ford. I remember Chuck as being a friendly and helpful co-worker, always had a word of encouragement and advice. Aside from that he got me interested in playing golf. Although I never played golf with, he said he was pretty good, and he gave me some good tips! Chuck liked to have a good laugh and always seemed happy; he was a good man! May the Pearly Gates open wide and welcome Chuck in!
