“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Charles Landrum. I was a coworker of Charles at Airlines Parking for 6.7 years and he was always prompt and usually the last driver to leave at the end of a shift. "Motown Dave", a long-time shuttle driver at AP, said Charles was like a "soldier", always reliable and persistent. He was always clean shaven with company shirt tucked in. Charles loved his employment in the army, especially overseas (Germany) and enjoyed conversations with shuttle customers that related to the military. In his younger days, he visited Detroit area clubs and was happy to be a "baby boomer". He'd sometimes quip "What you lookin' at?!" to other shuttle drivers at work. He really loved pancakes (especially with jelly) and peanut M&M's, but unfortunately we never made our planned outing to Cracker Barrel. I think most, if not all of the employees at AP knew he had cancer. The world lost an honorable and personable man and I will miss him. May the Heavenly Father have a spot for Charles E. Landrum in His glorious, eternal Kingdom!! RIP buddy!

Sincerely, Daniel Morrison
