“ R.I.P Uncle Chuck! One of the nicest genuine guys you could know! Married into the family, treated me like a nephew of his on. Always asked about my goals and spoke knowledge of wisdom. One day you called and gave me the opportunity as you supported my business. I took advantage and learned everything I could from a great successful businessman himself! Thank you for all you did! Your legacy lives on 🙏🙏🙏

“ To the Moore Family.
My sincere condolences to you and your family. Charles was a friend and a gentleman. I will always cherish our golf outings. Our foursome walked 17 different courses this year, some more than once. November 10, 2022 will be forever embedded in my memory, this was the last day our foursome played. you will truly be missed my Brother.

“ To the Moore Family. Charles was more than a friend to me. I always viewed him as a brother. Charles was always thoughtful, honest and real. Along with our golf crew we would spend many times talking about the events of the day. It was more than golf with us it was a social order of men who were more than just friends. Charles had a unique gift of giving of not just his heart but of substance. Every time we golf Chuck had a gift for us it was always the golf balls we love the most. He would find them on his daily walk with Beverly. I'm going to always love and miss you Chuck. And all the wonderful conversations we had about life.
