“ Charli,
From that day in September 1974 until jan10 2022 I not only gained a friendship that would last 48 years, I gained a friend that became a sister for a lifetime. My fondest memory from back then I was 22 & U were i Have never been out of Atlanta. And was watching T V and something coming on in Detroit and I ran upstairs to see if U would let me come & watch it and U said I can't get those channels You brought your T V from Detroit didn't U So why U can't get those channels & U said I can only get Atlanta channels. And to this day we always had to reminisce about. And last but the most precious thing U did was turn me on to the Ron Banks & The Dramatics. Got to meet them. U Know I got Dells vs The Dramatics on my You tube account, so when I get a little sad & missing U I Know where to go for that extra smile! Rest In Heaven My Friend & Go find "PRINCE" & give him That Hug from Me & YOU! LOVE U!

Rest in Peace Charlotte. We didn't take the opportunity to spend time with each other, we did meet at the same event with the Red Hatters. We have known each other since we were toddlers and attended Pleasant Grove Baptist, that's many years ago. Love you always Charlotte.
