“ *When you remember me,
Please do not weep.
My body may not be there.
It has chosen to sleep.
I'm not that far away.
My soul lives on,
Looking down, watching over
You and everyone.
And when you feel sad
And life seems so blue,
Just remember
That my spirit has its arms around you.
And on those special days,
Times that you wish I could see,
That cool breeze flowing past you...
Well, that will be me,
So don't be sad.
Have no fear.
God has taken me under his wing,
But I'll always be near.
I still watch you
Every minute, every day.
My love and soul are with you,
-Emma Marie Etwell*

“ We grew up down the street from Chris and the Ridgells on Wisconsin Street. I have so many fond memories of Chris, playing baseball and basketball with him and my brother and our various siblings together, in the backyard, in front of our house, throwing the ball for running bases, swinging the bat and trying not to hit the big window in the house. Chris always made us laugh and was such a sweet and kind friend. We all grew up and went our separate ways but his memory is ingrained in all my childhood memories. May he rest in peace and may his sweet memories bring your family comfort.

“ Chris this is your dear friend Jennifer W. We basically said good bye indirectly during our 1 1/2 hour conversation on January 7th. We talked about so many things and I can honestly say you had a beautiful heart, you were always kind and treated everyone with respect even when you knew that they didn't care for you. We always had good times on and off the job. Your bar b ques were great. I'll never forget you and your jokes. RIP
