“ Chris was a cherished friend to my family and I. We met in college in Montclair, NJ, and our friendship endured ever since. He happily attended my wedding in Antigua and was instantly apart of our family. His warm smile and unwavering positivity brightened every room he entered. He was a true friend who will be deeply missed. My sincere condolences to his family. Sending love from Coretta and the Browne/Desrivieres family.

“ Jonesy,
I'm still in disbelief. You were truly one of a kind and I'm thankful for having the honor of knowing you and being your friend. This year makes it a decade since we started grad school at Rutgers. We connected over choosing street parking to come to class instead of paying an arm and a leg for a parking pass 😭. More than that, we both connected over our faith in God, the 90s, and so much more. We got each other through grad school and that post grad job search. Over the years, life took us our separate ways but we always found time to talk from time to time. Your spirit was always lighthearted and humorous and you always had an encouraging word to share whenever we spoke. You always seemed content with life and were happy to share your journey with others. I'm grateful for the memories we got to make and for the life you lived. You will never be forgotten and I'll miss you.

“ Saddened to hear of your passing, but know you have always been and will always be with the ones you love who love you. I only knew you briefly but could tell right away and thereafter what a beautiful light lives within you. Prayers for your sweet spirit and your loved ones, now and always. <3

“ It's been a pleasure to know you, from housemates to friends to brothers. It's been a wild and wonderful journey from cooking in the kitchen, cracking jokes, sharing our plans, prayers, and challenges, and inspiring one another along the way. So many great moments from the day-to-day grind to watching our goals unfold into reality( what we called reaching “the land of milk and honey”). Love you brother. You are one of a kind. A brother in the best of times and the worst of times. Rest easy family.

“ Jersey-

You are greatly missed. I still can't believe you are gone. You taught me so much... like-how to drive (on the other side on the road). I remember when I first arrived at Okinawa I was so scared of driving.... You encouraged me drive us all the way to Okuma and back! I had been there about 2 weeks. I kept on forgetting on which side to drive on... I know you were scared as you kept on grabbing to door handles...we almost crashed a few times, but you kept telling me "you got this" as you shook head with a big grin on your face. This is one of many examples of your caring nature!

Thank-you for being you! A true, genuine, kind hearted and good person! You were one of a kind! Until we meet again..... Ann M.

“ Jersey/Fam,
I will never forget the times we spent together. I will miss our chats, and walks along the seawall, (and when we both were learning how to become plant parents, making those endless trips back and forth to Makeman/JA lol). Your kindness and generosity was indeed paramount to the meaning of a true friend! I'm still very saddened by your passing, but God gained an Angel. Thank you for everything. Until we meet again, rest easy my friend, you are and will be deeply missed!!

“ You have had such a profound impact on this earth. My life has forever changed, my heart expanded, and I feel blessed to have known you. From the west coast to the east coast, Canada, and so many other places we laughed, "talked stuff" (his words) about who had the best taste in music, enjoyed each other's company, and soaked in the scenery. Your love, kindness, and wisdom have impacted my spirit. You will always be my "Mr. Tadow". My prayers are that God bring peace and comfort to your family. I love you, miss you, and since we never said goodbye to each other, until we meet in the next life.....Later.

“ My brother Chris,

It was an honor and privilege to meet you "back in the day" when we were students at Montclair State. At the time, I wouldn't realize the impact you would have on my life. We've shared many conversations as college roommates over a decade ago, and many more since then on faith, life, work, and the list goes on. While can't believe you're no longer here, I take heart in the fact that I will see you again. I salute you as a brother and friend.

Love you bro!

“ My brother Jersey,

Words cannot express how your family and ours is feeling right now. From Ft. Irwin, CA (U.S. Army Desert Training' to fellow GS employees at Travis Air Force Base. You are my Army Brother, My Raiders Tailgate brother, to my work brother at Travis. We are also the very few to graduate from the 'Squadron Officers School' (SOS), Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama as GS employees. From talk late nights and planning our Las Vegas trip for the Raiders game. You are at peace, rest easy brother Jersey. We always admire your mentorship, you love and passion!.

Until we meet again my brother!!!

“Fam, this pains me to write this right now! You were a shining light. You always made sure to find the positive in things. I know you wouldn't want us sulking and mourning, you would want us to continue enjoying life. I'm doing my best, fam! I have all of our pictures, videos, and audio messages (allllllll of them) together. I will forever cherish the memories we had while you were here. You will be and are definitely missed. I miss you. I love you. The Fam Bam! 🌟 loves and misses you. Faaaaaaaaam! 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

This is Martha one of Christophers aunts. We are so sorry of what happened and hope to have some closure. There are still many questions as to what happened to this young man. I pray for him and my sister to get to the truth and don't forget.

Its been 6 months since you have passed; I truly miss you and our "Shake and Bake" approach while teaching classes at Al Udeid AB, Qatar. This, and exploring the bowels of Doha just to find a Philly Cheese Steak Food Truck. I think of you daily. Love Jeff
