“ As the Lord was walking through his beautiful garden, he noticed that one of his angels was missing. He called Clarence and welcomed him home. The Lord knew his family and friends would miss him but it was time. As I write this I think about the memories I have of Clarence. Not only was he a classmate, he was a friend. Our families knew each other well. Our memories keep our love one alive. Helen and family, my prayers are with you. He will always be looking over you. Benny Mae Owens-Lynch
