“ Claudy told me TWO things to remember: "Dollar Stores will be the wave of the future" (about 30 years ago) AND "The LORD told me to tell you to me militant with the devil!"

“ Claudy was a man after God’s heart! His zeal for sharing and spreading the Gospel was so infectious that it left an impression upon me as a young Christian! I enjoyed all of our conversations whenever I was at the bookstore with my wife. While we tended to disagree on some matters, I appreciated his perspective and respected how he went about defending his position! Rest well my brother, we look forward to seeing you again! To God be the glory!

“ I recall Claudy and his wife being so kind and compassionate. Faithful and full of compassion and desiring the best for others. True example of a God-fearing couple fulfilling God’s purposes together. Prayers for his lovely wife Jack and family! 🙏🙏🙏

“ I remember first meeting Claudy when I worked at NBD Bank on Woodward Ave. He was always so pleasant and kind. I later found out that we both attended Word of Faith, where I later met his wonderful wife Jack. The love between them was obvious to all. Although Claudy will be missed by all who know him, we have the expectation that we will see him again. I will be praying for you Jack and Taylor. May God's comfort, strength & peace carry you through during this difficult time. Lenora Johnson

“ I am saddened to hear of your passing Mr. Jones. You and your wife were always so kind, and a joy to talk with. I wasn't just speaking to a customer, we spoke like family. You will be for ever missed. My prayers are with Mrs. Jack Taylor Jones and the rest of the family. May God mend your broken hearts.
