“ Clemmie, a beauty and more than a friend! Truly missed by many, I will forever remember how direct but gentle she was with her words. I will forever remember her contagious energy and smile, and how she quietly graced a room when walking into it. 🕊️❤️

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I did not get the opportunity to see Clemmie like I wanted to but I am so thankful that whenever I did see her she was happy, carefree, loving, and going out of her way for you. I was blessed to see her this past summer and we took a few pictures that I will cherish. Clemmie will be missed often, and you will think of her more than you know. Her love is still there, just be happy that you had this time with her. You love her and we love her, God loves her too.

“ Clemmie and I have been friends over 40 years when she was working and I was working downtown we used to have so much fun together. We called ourselves partner in crime. I miss talking to her on her birthday although we didn't see each other often we always called each other on our birthday and I would truly miss hearing her voice and I'm still in shock and can't stop crying, but to the family my sympathy and love to the family

“ Whenever we came to Detroit for a visit, as young children, to adulthood, my cousin always made us feel welcomed and loved. She made sure we had something to eat as we reminisced about the past. Clemmie had a beautiful heart and smile. I am sorry we didn't have more time together. She was taken too soon. My cousin will truly be missed. We love you!

“ Although I didn't know Roy's mom I know Roy we went to high school together. I can't imagine the hurt of losing a mother, a wife, a sister aunt etc. But I can a grandma cuz I just lost my Grandma a few month ago. One of the things I hold dear to me is the bibles promises. Especially that of a paradise on earth an a resurrection on earth. Where the meek shall inherited the earth. Hold these promise close when time ahead get rough because they will but true friends an family got your back no matter what.
