“ To Anthony and the entire McMichael family. I express my condolences on the transition of Mother McMichael. She was a wonderful and sweet caring and kind person. I enjoyed our times together when I would come by the house to visit and play cards and just sometimes sit and talk. She counted all of us as her children and I counted it a privilege to be part of the extended family. She will be missed dearly, but as long as you continue to call her name she is never gone from us. Just know that I am praying for you and I'm just a phone call away. Take care and be blessed.
