“ To my sweet brother I never thought that February 9 was your last day here on earth, but God needed you more. Everyone thought you and our brothe Mario were older because y'all are taller than me. I will miss all the memories. We you were such a kind hearted person. You will always hold place in my heart, so continue to rest on sweet angel until we meet again.

“ Cornelius life will be missed here on earth, however, fond memories will live in our hearts. There are so many, no way to run out of fond and good memories. I am his Aunt.. his father's sister (Brenda). While visiting in Michigan last June, i attempted to dance with Cornelius to a James Brown song (popcorn). I am a somewhat short person, Cornelius tall. I said Cornelius do the bump dance, whereby you take your hip and bump the person...Well, tall Cornelius bumped me one time. and across the room i went. The dancing, the James Brown song ...all ended right there. There will be a resurrection, the Bible say so..i will catch up with nephew then. Aunt Brenda “ Grateful and appreciative for the life of Cornelius. He was an outstanding family member. Always supportive and willing to help. My personal experience with him was very pleasant person. No complaints, no harshness, no grudges carried. Cornelius was no more perfect, than any other human...he simply put fort effort to be a good person. Cornelius understood that it take little effort to just respect and be kind. Although 46 or 47 years...he had a good life. He sleep now and wait on the resurrection. Family.
