“ To the Wilson girls and family;

May God keep you strong during this most difficult time. Words can't express the pain that you are feeling for the loss of your Dad. These are the days of uncertainty as we get closer to the end of our lives. But for certain your father loved and adored All of his girls. May God give you the power and strength just to make it another day. You are always in my heart and forever in my prayers.

Much love to all the family, especially my Carly ,from Ms.Virginia Catchings, Vernor Elementary School
