“ Once upon a time there were four little girls who lived in the same neighborhood and went to kindergarten together; they remained friends throughout the years. The names of these girls were: Marian Ellison Miles; Teresa Fail Farr; Sandra Taylor Robinson and Cynthia Walker Dixon. Their lives took different paths; they didn't visit regularly as they did in their youth and teens, but they spoke on the phone and reminisced.

Marian departed this life first; then there were three; now, sadly, Cynthia has transitioned and two remain. It saddens my spirit deeply. Please find comfort in these words:

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith...”

2 Timothy 4:7

Teresa Fails-Farr

My sincere condolences to Cynthia's family. I'm praying that God gives you peace, strength and comfort.

“ Letitia Dixon and the Moore family have been neighbors and friends more more than 30 years.

I remember Cynthia mostly from our days in the gym supporting her granddaughter Brittney as she played basketball. We were a part of an organization where parents and grandparents of the players became more like family, when it came to supporting our girls. Cynthia and her husband Tyrone were an integral part of that support network. Many knew her fondly, only as “Brittney’s Grandma.”

The Moore family sends our sincere condolences and love to the Dixon Family, but especially to Tyrone, and our neighbors, Letitia, Brittney and Brendon.
