“ To The Family of Cynthia Blair Smith:

I met Cynthia and Howard when I was a teenager. Willine (Ashley) Snyder and her sister Lizzie Ashley introduced me to them. When Charlotte and Terri were born I baby sat them.

When I married my husband and I lived next door to them. At some point my late mother and Cynthia became friends. There were messages about how each of us were doing through my mother.

Cynthia was beautiful inside and out and I asked her one time if she was related to Lena Horne. Cynthia was kind and she would listen when the two of us would have serious conversations.

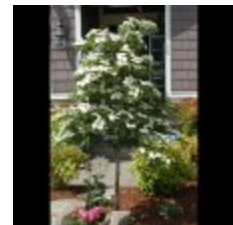

I was saddened when I heard that she had passed. I no longer live in Michigan but Cynthia was always in my thoughts. My prayers and sympathies go out to her family.

“ Cynthia,

I am so heartbroken losing you.

It's hard to accept the fact that you aren't here anymore and not a day goes by that you don't cross my mind.

You were my sister and our bond was an unbreakable one, I will miss our laughs and our conversations, I will miss your bright smile and quick wit, and I will miss your comforting presence. I will cherish you and all our time together when my heart is heavy.

To my nieces and nephews, your mother was an incredible person who loved you all so very much, May God wrap his loving arms around you and give you strength and peace.

Soar with the angels my sister friend, soar with the angels...
