“ My sweet grandma,
Words can't describe how much I miss you. I hated that I couldn't see you as often as I used to before you moved back to Detroit. You will always have a place in my heart, and I will always have a piece of you with me in the necklace you gave me. We had many fun times together. Out of my other two grandmothers, I was closer to you. I will miss your kind heart and sweet kisses you gave me every time we seen each other. and I will miss hearing you call me dear. You are in good hands now with no more worries or pain. I will always love you. Rest in heaven my angel.

Love,
Angel

“ Hey mom,
It has been a pleasure having you as my mom. When you moved back to Detroit you were missed. Now you are with the angels above and no more suffering, you will certainly be missed. You made me the person I have grown to be. You were a loving and caring mom, not just to me but to my sister V and other family members as well. I love you dearly and may the angels and the good lord bless you and keep your spirit. I hope to see you again.

Love,
Ken

“ Mom, I missed you so much when you left Georgia, but now I find myself missing you even more. You were like a real mom to me, and I loved you as if you were, and I know that you loved me as well. You are gone on to a better place where there are no worries for you. Where you are they are going to love your beautiful face, wonderful smile, and contagious laughter. You are in great hands now, but you will always be here with me in my heart.

*I will love you always,
Shirley*

“ Grandma Cynthia (old lady) lol you thought that was so funny everytime I called you that, but what was not so funny was how we would come from the grocery store and you had me carrying cases of water to you apartment and putting them away(pay back) but..it was ok because I would always take most of your candy out of your candy bowl on the table :)...I miss you grandma Cynthia and I'll always love you! Until we meet again!! Rest in Heaven!

“ Grandma Watson was my grandmother, but I didn't know her very well. I was blessed to actually meet her a few years at my sister's wedding. She walked right to me, gave me a hug and kisses me right in the mouth. I was so amazed and grateful for the love she showed on that day and her beautiful spirit will live on forever.

*Mommy,
Words cannot express how sad I feel that you are no longer here, living under the same sun and moon and breathing in the same air. But I am happy that you are in the arms of God and no longer suffering or feeling any pain. These last few years carried some challenges for you, but you always shine through, like a champion. Mommy, you were the strongest woman I know, you always kept your head up despite all that you were facing. I know that you are okay, because I have heard your whisper telling me not to cry because you are doing just fine. I will miss and love you till we meet again. I will never forget you mommy.*

*Love,
V.*
