“ I am very sadden by the death of Deborah. She will be missed. I remember her mostly from playing golf. Oh, how she was fully committed to the game and the competitiveness of the sport. Behind that competitive spirit though was a beautiful smile and caring soul. She talked lovingly about her grandkids! It seemed that whatever she set out to do, she was fully committed. My condolences to Tony and the entire family. May God give you comfort for HE is able. (Irma Walton)

“ As it has been said before, there are no words, just this painful new normal without you here. Thank you for calling me your sister and inviting me on your next Safari adventure! I realize TIME is one of the most valuable things we have been given. We will put the time we have to its best possible use by telling our friends and family how much we love and appreciate them. Life is short and cannot be replayed. Don't hesitate! Tomorrow is not promised.

I was looking forward to knowing Deborah better during the 2025 Tee-Set Women's Golf League season. The news of her passing was devastating. The Bible says "man makes plans, but the Lord orders our steps." While eternity is forever, as humans we only know the here and now. Debbie, I pray that there are golf courses in Heaven because I was really looking forward to playing you this year! May the family's precious memories of their lives with Deborah keep them lifted up during this difficult time. In love, Ramona Pearson.

“ My heart is sooo heavy, with grief and disbelief. I talked and texted with Debbie the day before her transition. All was well and I never knew it was to be the last time we spoke. I met Debbie in 2018 as we were both going to physical therapy after undergoing a knee replacement. We exchanged numbers and became friends. I learned Debbie was an avid and accomplished golfer, loved to travel, and we both shared a love for fitness. Whenever we got together we shared laughs and life stories. We played pool, pickleball, ate at new restaurants, and even attended an art exhibit downtown. Her brilliant aura, unlimited energy, warm genuine personality, and calm cool demeanor were totally delightful! It was such a blessing to have known her! Though she is gone, she will never be forgotten.....Rest In Peace dear friend.....Terri Gillum

“ Hi to all, with my sincerest condolences. My name is Virginia Lafour and met Deborah through Tony who recruited me to play Tennis, subsequently volleyball and pickle ball. She was very reserved and quiet. Tony invited Gwen and me for Christmas and saw her in that family setting and she was a beautiful host, but still very reserved. The day we became friends, was the day she walked up to me, with the friendliest demeanor you can imagine. She took my hand and said to me; she knew my late husband suffered from Alzheimer's, Virginia, whenever you need a break feel free to call me, I'll babysit him for as long as you need. I'm there for you. Only a friend does that. I hugged and thanked her for showing me love. I will never forget so much love and kindness. That what Debra is to me. My quiet friend. Thank you Deborah

“ I met Debbie through her sister-in-law Marsha, on the golf course. She was a good golfer and I told her I’m going to hook up with you so I can get some tips, I was joking and she said anytime. She did give me many tips over the years. We lost contact for a few years and one day my dad and I was at the driving range and she saw me and came over and said your swing has improved since I saw you. We hugged and talked for a while about golf and I asked her to join the Tuesday league I was on, and she did. I remember last year we went to a course that was almost an hour away so we drove together. I had recently loss my dad and she said some kind words to me about how to deal with it. I am so grateful I met her and she had a positive impact on me. I’ll sincerely miss her. Sending my deepest sympathy and prayers for the family.

“ I met Deborah on the golf course and was lucky to be paired in her foursome. Some people exude a spirit and it was clear from that first meeting that she was a kind and joyful person. I found myself hoping she would be among the group of ladies who would show up for our outings. I'm sure she will be missed by her family and friends and wish them all my deepest condolences.

“ I will always remember Debbie as a good person. As a supervisor she was tough but fair. As a person outside of her job, she was a very good friend, indeed. As a committee person, I had many encounters with her on union business. Over time, I learned to respect her, and she learned to respect me. We became friends. I send my condolences to her family.
