

Debra Carr

August 22, 1953 - August 4, 2023

Debra Levenia Carr (Debbie) was born August 22, 1953, in Detroit Michigan at Harper Hospital to Grant Carr Jr. and Georgia L. Carr (Williamson). She graduated from Pershing High School in the Detroit Public School System in 1971.

Debbie accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. Prior to an illness she was an active member of Perfecting Church, pastored by Marvin L. Winans, she served in the Overcomer's Department, providing recovery outreach services.

She inherited her love of traveling and spending money (junking) from her mother. She wholeheartedly loved her family and friends, especially her sons and her granddaughters.

In 2008, Debbie retired from the State of Michigan after 35 years of service. She worked for the Michigan Employment Securities Commission (MESC) for 17 years, Northville Psychiatric Hospital for 13 years, and she returned to the unemployment Agency under the Department of Labor for five years.

Debbie loved reading and watching classic television shows. She had impressive collections of John Wayne movies and romance novels. Debbie always had at least one romance novel in her purse.

Debbie was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Grant Carr III. To cherish her loving memory, Debbie leaves her children: Derrick (Lakeeta) Carr and Christopher (Danielle) Carr; seven granddaughters: Keliyah Davis, Ciara Carr, Kendall Carr, Kirsten Carr, Lauryann Carr, Savannah Carr, and Charlotte Carr; one great grandson, Khaleel Davis; two sisters, Kelcey (Lonzel) Mitchell and Felicia Walton; one nephew Grant Carr IV; Sandra Willhite - her dear friend for 30 years; and a host of cousins, extended family members, and friends

2 Timothy 4:78

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day-and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

“ My name is Stacey Berry and I was blessed to know, love and care for Ms. Debbie over the brief time she spent in Frederickburg, VA. My friends Derrick and Lakeeta entrusted Ms. Debbie's care to me and throughout our time together we would get some chores in, run errands, share stories and eat. I believe Ms. Debbie and I grew very fond of each other. She always had a good and entertaining story to tell. Even if I was just organizing something of hers, it would spark a story that would finesse a smile across both our faces. Another thing is Ms. Debbie knew quality! One time when we went to get something to eat after getting hype from reading the reviews and we were sorely disappointed. It sticks with me this day when she said, "Those people who wrote about this must've had a different cook or something. If we never get that again it would be okay. You don't wanna go get your money back?!" I was so tickled and after I dropped her off I found that she left $20 in my armrest to replace the cost of that meal. She really didn't want me at a loss. I love to cook so with that $20, I purchased items for my famous and favorite chowder recipe. Ms. Debbie later shared that she wasn't a fan of soups but that I "threw down" with that one and she could eat that every week. I was glad she enjoyed it. She will always hold a special and sweet place in my heart. It was my absolute pleasure to care and connect with you, Ms. Debbie. I love you always.
