“ I've know Ruth since I was 18. She was always the gentle version of the sister's for me. lol but baby don't get it twisted she rumbles with the best of them. Our candid conversations about work & food was always a thing. Or just her calling me as her wanna be attorney at law when we needed a quick decisions made. I love her like my own big sister. She will forever hold a special place in my heart. My prayers & blessings to the family as I know she was the rock for you all. Love you forever, Pat ❤️🙏🥹

“ Remembering all the summer we spent together as kids y'all came to Chicago and a time we would have riding bike and just being kids. We still have the picture of you when your eye had swollen we laugh about for so long. Your last visit here I was doing laundry when you and Peg came in and I remember you laughing at the fact that I had so many towels as you help me put them away. These memories I will forever cherish rest well cuzn. Tell my sister and Granny I luv and miss them as I love and will miss you too. 🥺🤔

“ We were 20- somethings when we met. Trying to figure life out. You had a smile that would light up a room. You had a level of warmth that could comfort anyone. You were genuinely sweet. You never lost those qualities. You will be missed. Praying for your children , grandchildren, and all that love you.
