“ I had the privilege of growing up with a few Uncles to look up too. My Uncle Lawrence was one of them. I spent many nights on Calvert and I remember looking around one day and thinking " this is how it should be". He had the beautiful wife my Auntie Daphne. The two kids A Jr and beautiful daughter. Two cars and a dog. It looked like he was living a dream.

He was the uncle who came to all the birthday parties, prom send offs, open houses and slid you the $100. The uncle who cleaned out the ice cream truck for the kids. I'll miss getting those random calls and hearing " how you doing old man" in that raspy voice. I love you Unc

While growing up, my uncle G.W. and my mother (Mandy) made sure that the cousins knew one another. So it seemed like every year either we would travel to Detroit or they'd come to Chicago. People would always say that "Lawrence" and I resembled , however, we were both to erogant (playfully) to agree. He was always productive and very successful. He became a Man at an early age. He was good at telling stones and he could command an audience. I loved my First Cousin!!!

“ Uncle Lawrence your laughter was literally contagious! Living proof that all family doesn't have to be blood related. You treated my family and I as your own since day one. So saddened to hear of your passing may you Rest In Power! ~ Andre Condolences to all family of DeLawrence Sr. My heart goes out to my godson Dee and Dominique. The loss of a father breaks a main branch off the family tree.

Throughout the many years of having family gatherings with Lawrence and Daphne (when they were married) you could see how much Lawrence enjoyed and loved Nique and Dee. Once the grand babies [Denver and Dakota] came DeLawrence was a proud grandpa as well.

Although gone in the physical the loved ones left behind including ...your sisters Nissy and Bernie and other relatives and friends will miss your physical presence but the memories will be everlasting. RIP
